

BENEDICT OKHUMALE

He was secretary, Advisory Board for the Pat Utomi ₦1, 000, 000 Book Prize.

Benedict holds a Bachelors of Science Degree in ZOOLOGY from the University of Benin and a Masters of Science Degree in Marine Sciences from the University of Lagos. He worked as Project Officer at the Centre for Values in Leadership (CVL) a project of the Pat Utomi Legacy Foundation Lagos. He is Member/Secretary of the Advisory Board of the Pat Utomi Annual Book Prize. At the moment he is the Associate Coordinator of LEAD AFRICA, a youth development NGO also based in Lagos. In the past 5 years, he consistently organized youth based Leadership and Entrepreneurship development seminars and workshops especially targeted at Students. He is the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of D-Thinkers Limited, a research and development company based in Lagos, Nigeria. He is currently the Program Manager/Coordinator for the Centre for Values and Leadership, Lagos.

Benedict is self motivated and very passionate about youth empowerment as well as impacting society positively in every possible way.